

BLUE GRASS ARMY DEPOT

RICHMOND, KY

Blue Grass Army Depot (BGAD), is a Government-Owned, Government-Operated, Department of Defense (DoD) facility located in Richmond, KY.

BGAD provides America's Joint Warfighters with reliable, timely and cost-effective munitions, chemical defense and non-lethal combat equipment (NLCE) in support of full-spectrum military operations, and safeguards the remainder of the National Chemical Weapons Stockpile material until demilitarization is complete.

The installation consists of 846 dedicated and skilled personnel, occupying 14,594 acres with 902 igloos and a storage capacity of 2.2 million square feet.

Located near numerous transportation arteries, BGAD's skilled team is capable of transporting munitions via air, rail, ground or sea. BGAD is a proven partner of industry that takes our commitment to the Warfighter and our customers seriously. We invite you to partner with the BGAD team of experts!
